What are the ticket Terms & Conditions

Your ticket must be presented in order to gain admittance to the event without exception. The barcode uniquely identifies the ticket and the purchaser and can be redeemed only once. Multiple copies of the ticket will not allow multiple entries. In the event that multiple copies of the barcode is presented at the event, the promoter may refuse entry to all ticket holders presenting tickets with the barcode. The ticket is sold by Nelson City Council as the promoter. The full terms and conditions of sale can be viewed at www.eventfinda.co.nz. Tickets cannot be refunded, exchanged or cancelled once issued except in accordance within the applicable laws of New Zealand. Tickets may not be on-sold at a premium, offered as a prize or used for promotional purposes without the written permission from the event promoter. Do not purchase this ticket from any source other than the Eventfinda website at www.eventfinda.co.nz or NCC's Customer Service Team. Tickets purchased from any other source may be unauthorised copies and may be refused admittance to the event. Event promoters may restrict items that may be brought into an event, including audio and video recording devices, containers, seating, and other items and paraphernalia. The event promoter reserves the right to withdraw, replace, add or substitute artists or performers without notice. If an event is postponed, purchased tickets for the original date will be valid for the new date unless otherwise advised. Purchasers have the option to seek a refund for the value of the purchased ticket(s) for a postponed event by contacting Nelson City Council prior to the replacement date for the postponed show. In the event of an event cancellation, the full amount of the transaction will be refunded directly to the credit card used for the original purchase. When presenting concession tickets or entering events with an age restriction in place, appropriate identification must be shown. If suitable identification is not presented, you may be refused admittance to the event.
